S.J. Res. 66. Joint resolution to designate the weeks beginning April 18, 1993, and April 17, 1994, each as "National Organ and Tissue Donor Awareness Week."

The message also announced that pursuant to Public Law 103-3, Mr. INOUE announced, on behalf of the majority leader, the appointment of Mr. DODD, Lenore Miller of New Jersey, and Donna Lenhoff of the District of Columbia, as members of the Commission on Leave.

¶40.5 MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT—BUDGET OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, laid before the House a message from the President, which was read as follows:

To the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate:

I have the honor to transmit to you the Budget of the United States Government for Fiscal Year 1994.

In my February 17th address to the Congress, and in the report, A Vision of Change for America, that followed the address, I outlined the basic elements of the plan that forms the basis of this budget. The plan has three key elements: economic stimulus to create jobs now and lay the foundation for long-term economic growth; long-term public investments to increase the productivity of American workers and businesses; and fair, balanced, and equitable deficit reduction measures to stop government deficits from preempting the private investments needed to create jobs and raise living standards.

The plan flows from the demand of the American people for change and my vision of what America can be if we embark upon an economic strategy of investing in people and putting people first. Achieving this change will not be easy, but the cost of not changing is far greater. To ensure that our children's generation is not the first generation of Americans to do worse in life than their parents, we must restore the American dream.

This budget extends the elements of the plan into each department and agency of the Federal Government and proposes appropriations language and other required information for the Congress to place the plan fully into effect. Enactment of the proposals in this budget will bring the vision that underlies my plan—a vision of a brighter, more prosperous future for America—a step closer to reality.

Although powerful special interests that profit from the status quo may oppose the plan, the American people have demanded change, and it is our responsibility as their elected servants to answer their call and take the action they demand.

I am gratified by and grateful for the support this program has received in the Congress thus far. However, much remains to be done. Therefore, I ask for your continued support and help. Together, we can get the American economy moving again, bring Federal finances back to a sound footing, and restore hope in the hearts of the American people.

WILLIAM J. CLINTON.

THE WHITE HOUSE, April 8, 1993.

By unanimous consent, the message, together with the accompanying papers, was referred to the Committee on Appropriations and ordered to be printed (H. Doc. 103-3).

40.6 FEDERAL COUNCIL ON THE AGING

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, announced that pursuant to the provisions of section 204(a) of the Older Americans Act of 1965 (42 United States Code 3015(a)), as amended by section 205 of Public Law 102-375, and the order of the House of April 7, 1993, the Speaker did on April 7, 1993, appoint to the Federal Council on the Aging: Mr. Raymond Raschko of Spokane, Washington, to a three-year term; Mr. Max Friedersdorf of Sanibel Island, Florida, to a three-year term; Mr. E.
